

POTHICHORU- HELPING SOCIETY

Pothichoru was an initiative where the students and faculty of the college would carry an extra pack of lunch once a week and share it with the needy. Volunteers would take these food packets to the ones in need, inculcating a sense of humanity and responsibility in all. 42 students of Department of Social work is taking initiative in this program.