

CHEERUP SOCIETY

Cheer-Up Society is an initiative of the Department of Logistics Management, where students donate a small amount everyday to a piggybank kept aside to extend a helping hand. At the end of the collection period, the money so collected is used to extend a helping hand to either a member of the department or to any needy individual. 112 students of the department contributed to the piggybank.