Executive Summary

The Human Resources Policy and Procedures Manual of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has been developed to clearly define and implement the College's policies on human resource management. The Manual provides guidelines to be followed in the administration of these policies, and assists all employees in defining their responsibilities, and the procedures which have to be followed.

The existing policies of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) have been updated and incorporated into the manual based on the best practiced management principles. The updated manual was approved by the Governing Body of the College on 08th of July 2020.

HR policies must be kept current and relevant. Therefore, from time to time it is necessary to modify and amend some sections of the policies and procedures, or for new policies/procedures to be added. Any future amendments of the manual can only be made with the approval of the Governing Body.

Failure to comply with these instructions in the Manual is a disciplinary offence and will be subject to appropriate investigation and further actions.

Any suggestions, recommendations or feedback on the policies and procedures specified in this manual can be sent through e-mail (iqac@alberts.edu.in).

These policies and procedures apply to all areas of operations within St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and related entities unless and otherwise specified.

Profile of the College

We introduce ourselves as St. Alberts College (Autonomous). The College perpetuates the motto “For Truth and Service” and is affiliated to the Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, is re-accredited with an ‘A Grade’ by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). Born out of a unique vision in 1892, the seeds of this portal of higher learning had been sown when St. Albert’s High School commenced its functioning, and in the year 1946 the Higher Education Programmes were introduced in St. Albert’s College. Over 50000 of our alumni are actively contributing to the development of various industries across the world. Today, with 23 Under Graduate Programmes, 12 Post Graduate Programmes including Space Science and Technology, Medical Microbiology, Business Administration, Social Work and 7 Research Centres leading to Ph.D., St. Albert’s College (Autonomous) is indeed a front-runner in the field of higher education.

This had been a premier centre for learning for the young male children of the wider Cochin area from its very inception. The College owes its origin to the foresight and sagacity of its founder Patron, The Most Rev. Dr. Joseph Attipetty (Servant of God), and the first Indian Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Verapoly. His Grace, a noble prelate of rare vision and saintliness, was of the view of promoting higher education among his flock. It was with this vision that His Grace ventured upon the onerous mission of starting a College. The laboriousness of this colossal project, however, was shared by the selfless and devoted service of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Alexander Lenthaparambil, the then Vicar-General of the Archdiocese. Also in the forefront was the Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph Vaipicherry, who took charge as the Manager of both the High School and the College and was also the Secretary to the College Governing Body. The mission was accomplished in 1946 when the University of Madras upgraded St. Albert's High School, Ernakulam to a second grade College.

The St. Albert's College began functioning on the 16th of July, 1946 in the old High School building with 150 students in the Intermediate Class. Degree Programmes were introduced in 1947. Subsequently classes were shifted to the new building just opposite the old school building in 1951. In 1958, when the Kerala University Act came into force, the affiliation was shifted to the Kerala University. In 1983 when the Mahatma Gandhi University was established, the College became affiliated to the Mahatma Gandhi University.

The College celebrated its Golden Jubilee in 1996-97 and there began a new era of job oriented courses. During the time of the Most Rev. Dr. Daniel Acharuparambil, the former patron who was a visionary and philosopher, the College reached new heights in academic excellence. In 2006, the College had a revolutionary change shifting from an all men's College to a co-ed institution. In the year 2006, St. Albert's College started the Department of Business Studies christened as Albertian Institute of Management (AIM). To this day, it offers a full time Master's Programme in Management (MBA) that lays the foundation for an in-depth analytical and conceptual understanding. In 2016, the College was recertified for ISO 9001: 2015 by TUV Rheinland. The College has also been selected under FIST scheme of DST and Star College Programme of DBT. In March 2016, University Grants Commission granted Autonomous status to the College as the College was reaccredited by NAAC with an 'A' grade.

Since 2016, the College has witnessed a digital revolution, wherein the IT Team of the College has conceptualised and developed an ERP system which has fully digitalised the operations of the College thereby reducing the man-hours spent. The digitalisation has supported the College to a great extent starting from online admissions portals, to the regular attendance monitoring system, digital library, to the day to day activities of the Examination Department, Operations Department, and Administration Department etc. This system has eliminated errors to a great extent and brings in consistency to the records. The introduction of the ERP system in the Examination Department has also improved the confidentiality of developing question papers and the timely publication of results. From being the first Autonomous College in the State to develop its own E-Question Bank, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has come a long way to be an institution which is striving towards becoming an E-Institution. Honourable Justice (Retd.) P Sathashivam, Governor of Kerala State declared the integration of E Learning & E-Governance System at St. Albert's College (Autonomous) in the year 2019.

To encourage the entrepreneurial efforts of the students, the College applied for an IEDC centre and in 2017 was selected by Kerala Start-Up Mission. In 2018, the College was also selected by the MHRD to be a part of their "Institutions Innovation Council" (IIC).

To enhance the skills and employability of the students, the College started 8 B. Voc. Courses with the support and assistance of the University Grants Commission and has collaborated with more than 25 industries. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is the only College in Kerala offering Programmes in "Space Science & Technology" and "Fitness Management & Personal Training". To improve the students' global perspective, the College has also collaborated with more than 10 international universities. Since 2016, the College has been organising the Albertian Knowledge Summit (An International conference on multi-disciplinary sciences) and AKS 2020 was spread across 30 days with 58 Key Note Speakers (25 International speakers from 10 different countries and the rest from India) with more than 300 research papers presented by the participants.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Code of Professional Ethics

Whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself/herself in accordance with the ideals of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his/her students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his/her precepts and practice. The national ideals of education which have already been set forth and which he/she should seek to inculcate among students must be his/her own ideals. The profession further requires that the teachers should be calm, patient and communicative by temperament and amiable in disposition.

There are seven major areas of professional activities which encompass the work of a teacher at St. Albert's College (Autonomous)¹. For each of these areas certain principles have been identified to serve as guidelines for the teacher's conduct at the College. These are preceded by a Preamble which provides a rationale for the principles identified.

Preamble

- Recognizing that every student has a fundamental right to receive education of good quality;
- Recognizing that education should be directed for the holistic development of human personality;
- Realizing the need for developing faith in the guiding principles of our nation viz. Democracy, Social Justice, Equality and Secularism;
- Recognizing the need to promote through education, our rich culture, heritage, national consciousness, international understanding and world peace;
- Recognizing that teachers, being part and parcel of the social milieu, share the needs and aspirations of the people;
- Recognizing the need to organize teaching as a profession for which expert knowledge, specialized skills and dedication are pre-requisites;

- Realizing that the community's respect and support for teachers, are dependent on the quality of teaching and the teachers' proper attitude towards the teaching profession;

Anti-Bribery Policy

Policy Statement

It is the policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) that all the employees of the College conduct business in an honest manner, without indulging in any corrupt practices or acts of bribery to obtain an unfair advantage.

Objective

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) restricts its employees from following any corrupt practices or acts of bribery to obtain an unfair advantage.

Policy

The existing growth of St. Albert's College (Autonomous), provides exciting new business opportunities, while at the same time presenting new challenges in maintaining our commitment to the highest ethical standards.

Among the most significant policies and regulations that govern St. Albert's College (Autonomous), are those that prohibit the payment or receipt of money, or things of value, in order to receive a commercial benefit or personal advantage. Even the laws of India signify that corruption indulged in by its public officials is a criminal offense. Such behaviour, even without a specific law prohibiting it, is a clear violation of St. Albert's College (Autonomous)'s Code of Conduct & Ethics.

This Anti-Bribery Policy was developed to provide clear guidance to all the employees and to ensure a consistent approach to business practices throughout the functioning of the College.

Violations of this policy not only undermine St. Albert's College's (Autonomous) core values and ethical standards, but, also can potentially subject the College to penalties. For any individuals violating the policy, there could be severe criminal penalties, and will also result in corrective action, including possible initiation of disciplinary action against the employee.

Human Resources Policy and Procedures Manual of St. Albert's College (Autonomous)

Every employee has to carefully read and understand the Anti-Bribery Policy and strictly comply with every aspect of its requirements.

Every employee should refrain from accepting or permitting any member of his/her family or any person acting on his/her behalf to accept any gift in cash or kind for his/her own benefit from any person including another teacher/employee/student/general public for a work to be done in connection with the functioning of the College.

Every employee should refrain from asking or encouraging gifts¹ or benefits in connection with their work duties. Every employee should refrain from accepting for private use, any gift or benefits under all circumstances offered by a seller of goods or services purchased for College use.

Every employee should refrain from offering another public service officer a gift or benefit with the intent of seeking to alter the honest and impartial performance of that officer.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) permits our memorabilia (such as T-Shirts, mugs, caps, Diary with our logo) to be given to government officials/others as modest gifts in the ordinary course of business, provided that such gifts conform to the laws of the country in which the gift has been made, and further provided that the employee giving such a gift shall seek the permission of Bursar in writing.

Any transaction, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant, that might give rise to a violation of this policy must be reported promptly. Failure to report known or suspected wrongdoing in connection with St. Albert's College (Autonomous) functioning of which an employee has knowledge may, by itself, subject that individual or entity to disciplinary action, including prosecution under the anti-bribery laws of any jurisdiction.

¹ If the employee is placed in a position where it would be inappropriate to refuse a gift of more than INR 500.00, the gift above the said amount should be declared to the Bursar within 7 days of receipt and given to the Bursar within 14 days of receipt (the bursar can decide whether to keep the gift as a college property or return the same back to the employee). However, every employee should refrain from accepting a monetary gift in this regard under any circumstances

Change in Employment or Personal Data

Policy Statement

The Registrar's Office is responsible for maintaining records of each employee's work history in the Institution and for maintaining information, including educational background, home and office address, and emergency notification information.

Objective

The objective of this policy is to make sure that an accurate record of the employees at St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is maintained.

Policy

Each employee is expected to promptly notify his or her Department Head and the Registrar's Office in case of any change in name, home address, telephone number or any other data captured as part of the Master data initially, or thereafter. The Registrar's Office should be notified of changes in marital status, spouse's name, number of dependents and beneficiaries in writing with proper evidence in order to ensure proper administration of benefits. If the change affects tax status, an updated tax declaration form has to be submitted.

If it is found that the changes mentioned by employee in any means are forged, then the Institution will be forced to cancel all the benefits that the employee is availing at that time, without any notice and if the benefits of the employee have to be reinstated, he/she will be requested to show cause to the satisfaction of the Registrar's Office that why a disciplinary action should not be initiated against him/her.

Consultancy Policy

Consultancy Policy

Introduction

Consultancy is well recognised as an effective way for academia to disseminate knowledge and make an early and direct impact on society. However, the balance between consultancy and the traditional roles of the academic staff needs to be managed and the interests of the College must be protected. This Policy provides provisions for conducting consultancy to ensure that consultancies undertaken by staff are consistent with the Institution's strategic, operational objectives, and where the costs are sustainable.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is committed to making its expertise available through service to industry, commerce, government, professions, arts and other educational and research organisations.

The Policy

All consultancies described in this Policy are governed by the following guiding principles:

- (a) There should be demonstrable benefit to the College from the consultancy through income, enhanced reputation, and/or expanding the expertise of the staff member.
- (b) The Consultancy must not be in conflict with the policies, functions, objectives or interests of the College or damage the College's reputation.
- (c) At a minimum, the salary and on-cost charges set by the College must be applied to all project budgets. All Consultancies are required to include overheads.
- (d) Staff members shall not undertake external research activities where no formal agreement has been authorised by the College unless they are on leave without pay, approved by the Principal and Manager. Such faculty may not use their college affiliation or academic title when providing research services which are not approved by the College.

Consultancy Policy

Research Consultancy

A Research Consultancy exists where an academic staff member provides research skills or expertise in return for remuneration from an external funder. A Research Consultancy may be the outcome of a tender or an individual negotiation.

Other Consultancies

Other Consultancies include non-research activities performed under contract for a third party. Other Consultancy would include the provision of professional services to external agencies for a fee. This would include, but not be limited to, routine laboratory and other testing of materials, devices or products, opinion surveys etc., the provision of professional services such as designing, legal and academic advice/delivery undertaken by members of faculty and staff.

Private Consultancy

In principle, a faculty or staff member is not supposed to undertake a Private Consultancy unless it is approved by the Manager and the Principal. However, the faculty or staff conducting private consultancy shall ensure that such work does not affect their allocated duties or obligations to the College. None of the benefits set out for College Consultancy are available to faculty and staff undertaking a Private Consultancy. It is the responsibility of the staff member undertaking a Private Consultancy to make clear to the person or body for which the Private Consultancy is undertaken that it is the staff member and not the College who is carrying out the work, and that the College has no responsibility or liability whatsoever in the matter. A staff member conducting a Private Consultancy must ensure that the following criteria are met:

- (a) The carrying out of tasks associated with the Private Consultancy will be accomplished without unduly affecting the duties of the position;
- (b) The use of College trademarks such as letterheads, brands etc. or College intellectual property is strictly prohibited in Private Consultancies;
- (c) No College facility (including library resources, power, space, equipment, consumables and telephone facilities) will be used to fulfil the requirements of the Private Consultancy

Consultancy Policy

- (d) St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is not bound by any agreement (written or otherwise) relating to the Private Consultancy;
- (e) The staff member agrees to indemnify St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and its representatives from and against all actions, claims, loss, damage, costs, charges, liabilities and demands arising directly or indirectly from or in respect of the Private Consultancy activity; and
- (f) The staff member declares any real or potential conflict of interest to their Manager

Staff Entitlements

- (a) The College allows the staff to engage in Consultancies provided they do not interfere with the discharge of their duties. Consultancies shall be undertaken only with the approval of the Principal and the Manager. No limit is placed on earnings. However there is a limit on the time spent on Consultancy.
- (b) Academic Staff may spend one day per week on approved Consultancies, with a maximum of 48 days per year. Variations to this time commitment require the approval of the Principal and the Manager. A lesser time commitment may be approved when the proposed Consultancy interferes with the discharge of responsibilities.

Benefits of College Consultancy

The College provides the following benefits to staff undertaking Research or Non-research Consultancies:

- (a) Access to the College's financial management processes to support and enable invoices to external organisations for funding and expenditure of project costs.
- (b) Access to the College's resources such as technical and administration staff equipment and telecommunications, subject to approval by the Principal and the Manager.
- (c) Entitlements to use the College's name and reputation, providing it is not brought into disrepute.
- (d) Ability to make reference to their College position and title in connection with the work.

Consultancy Policy

The College does not extend these benefits to Private Consultancies. Any Consultancy conducted by a faculty or staff member that accesses any of these benefits in the course of undertaking the work will be regarded as a Research or other Consultancy and subject to the conditions of this Policy.

All Consultancies are required to include overheads.

The bills for consultancy have to be issued by the College and the payments have to be directed through the College consultancy account. Any violation of the same would call for penal action.

The revenue generated from the consultancy project will be shared among the member, his/her Department and the College on a 40:30:30 ratio after deducting the overheads and all other expenses met by the College/consultancy work.

If more than one member takes up the consultancy project the 40% amount shall be shared equally.

A consultancy register has to be maintained with particulars regarding the day to day activities concerned with the consultancy.

Approval

All College approved Consultancies are required to be approved and managed in accordance with this Policy, associated documents, and other College policies. Applications to conduct Consultancies are required to be approved by the Principal and the Manager.

Exemptions and Variations

Exemptions to the above and variations to the standard overhead charge must be determined at the time of application, explicitly noted on the Consultancy Application coversheet, and approved by the Manager.

Transfers in from other Institutions in cases where a Consultancy is transferred to the College from another organisation, the overhead will not be taken from the funds where the awarded budget did not include an overhead component. In cases, where a grant is being transferred to

When an employee undertaking a consultancy retires, the said consultancy project has to be transferred to a person authorised by the Principal and the Manager.

Conflict Of Interest

Engagement in consultancies must not create a conflict of interest, perceived or actual. Any conflict of interest, actual or perceived must be reported to the Manager and the Principal for resolution. A conflict of interest may arise where an employee engages in consultancies at the expense of the College's interests or the interests of other employees or students.

An example of a potential conflict of interest includes, but is not limited to:

- a. financial or non-financial interests;
- b. teaching or course work for another Institution;
- c. work performed for a supplier of goods or services to the College; or
- d. work undertaken with an Organisation to which the College supplies goods or services.

Consultancies with Other Tertiary Institutions

Full-time members of the College staff should not accept regular Consultancies with other institutions without first obtaining the permission of the Principal and the Manager

Green Campus Policy

Policy Statement

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) envisions a clean and green campus where there is an amalgamation of education and conscientiousness to promote sustainable and eco-friendly practices on the campus. The College protects its self-nurtured environment with its green campus initiatives, maintains a pollution-free green and clean campus and is committed to managing the campus, upholding the responsibility of promoting a sustainable environment.

Objectives

- To protect and conserve ecological systems and resources within the campus.
- To ensure judicious use of environmental resources to meet the needs and aspirations of the present and future generations.
- To integrate environmental concerns into policies, plans and programmes for social development and outreach activities.
- To raise awareness and adopt environmental good practices and the reduction of any adverse effects on the environment.
- To continuously improve the efficient use of all resources, including energy and water, and to reduce consumption and the amount of waste produced, recovering and recycling waste where possible.
- To make the campus plastic free
- To conduct environmental and energy audits from time to time.

Policy

The focus areas of this policy are:

- Clean Campus Initiatives
- Clean Air Initiatives

Infrastructural Initiatives

- Renewable Sources of Energy: The College is dedicated to minimising and sustainably managing its use of electricity. The College believes in reducing the consumption of electricity produced by non-renewable resources by switching to clean energy sources like solar energy.
- Energy Saving and Energy Efficient Equipment: The College commits to installing environment-friendly electrical appliances that save energy and to using sensors for lights in corridors for efficient use of energy.
- Water Conservation through Rainwater Harvesting System: The College has committed itself to this effort to reload the groundwater table by practising rainwater harvesting. This practice helps in the replacement and recharging of groundwater.

Waste Management Processes

The College strives to have a minimal impact on the environment and is dedicated to reducing and managing the waste generated by the college campus.

- Use of three types of bins separately for waste on the college campus as well as in hostels
- Recycle electronics and batteries (by signing an MoU with a third party for recycling of E-Waste)
- Systematically engage with the 3Rs of environment friendliness (Reduce, Reuse and Recycle).
- Maintain leak-proof water fixtures
- Minimize the use of water by using single-press taps which automatically stop water

Awareness Initiatives

The College supports and encourages awareness campaigns, seminars, workshops, conferences and other interactive sessions to facilitate the effective implementation of the Green Campus, Energy and Environment policies.

Grievance Policy

Grievance Policy

Policy Statement

Grievances may be real or imagined, but in either case, it is essential that the grievance is brought to light, discussed and the matter resolved to the satisfaction of all concerned. Failure to do so will only result in the grievance becoming a worsening source of conflict and eventually ending in a far more serious problem.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) regards it important that all of its employees will have sufficient knowledge of such procedures and an easy access to it. To this effect, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has formulated a grievance policy, which has as its main objective the speedy resolution of grievances and maintenance of equitable justice for all stakeholders of the College.

Objective

The objective of the policy is to resolve grievances within St. Albert's College (Autonomous) as fairly and as swiftly as possible.

Application

This policy would be successfully implemented when employees and students follow the procedures of the Grievance Policy.

Policy

The policy is further classified into student and employee categories as each of them has to follow different procedures on filing grievances with the college.

Induction Policy

Policy Statement

All new employees should attend an induction program upon their joining the Institution.

Objective

The objective of the Induction Policy is to familiarise the employee with the Institution, his/her job, colleagues, processes and policies with a view of ensuring that they can make a significant contribution to the Institution at the earliest.

The Induction Program should be a combination of standard components as well as learning, specifically tailored for the role/Department.

Process

This policy is introduced to ensure that the employee settles down smoothly into the institution and that he/she reaches a standard level of performance as early as possible. The benefits of this policy are:

1. It gives maximum relevant information to the new employee in the shortest time.
2. It eliminates the feelings of uneasiness, anxiety, apprehension etc. in the new employee.
3. It familiarizes the new employee with the College's Vision and Mission, Institution's hierarchy and its functions, its people, Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) etc. so as to make him/her productive at the earliest.

Industrial Visit Policy

Industrial Visit

Policy Statement

During industrial visits, students visit companies and get insight regarding the internal working environment of a company and how a company functions, as well as useful information related to the practical aspects of the educational course which cannot be visualized in lectures. The industrial visit is considered one of the most tactical methods of teaching. It provides students with an opportunity to learn practically through interaction, working methods and employment practices. Moreover, it gives exposure from an academic point of view. Hence, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) proposes the policy for Industrial Visit

Objective

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) would like to nurture the quality of students by providing the practical aspects of the educational course which cannot be visualized in lectures.

Application

This policy is applied when the Departments follow the process and procedures for industrial visits.

Policy

The Head of the Department, Faculty in-charge of Industrial Visit and students shall adhere to the following guidelines and ensure its compliance from the planning of Industrial visit to the completion of visit:

1. Industrial Visit shall be arranged according to the academic requirements and as per the norms of the affiliating University. The Head of the Department must certify that the tour is required for the students or is related to their curriculum.
2. The visiting companies shall be relevant and suitable to the specialization of the Programme and academic requirements.
3. Industrial Visit shall fall within the stipulated period set by the college. The stipulated period shall be informed to the IV-Faculty in-charge and Students through Head of the Department well in advance to enable IV to go through a diligent process including communicating to the potential companies and obtaining permission to visit.

Industrial Visit Policy

4. Industrial Visit shall not exceed three days; preferably it has to be scheduled on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The students have to return by Sunday night. All students should attend classes on the following Monday.
5. Industrial visit shall be allowed only if more than 90 percent of students have shown interest and registered for IV.
6. The entire IV Plan including permission letter from the companies to be visited, route map, list of students with their contact no. (preferably mobile phone) and emergency numbers, list of faculty-escorts with their contact details, undertaking letter from the student and parent, driving license of the driver and permit of the transporting vehicle should be available in the file and cross-checked by the Principal. Once the plan is approved, any other further change would need approval. Otherwise, the IV program shall be cancelled.
7. The bus shall carry a banner exhibiting the college name and the place of IV proposed
8. There shall be insurance cover (accident cover, and life cover) for every student and faculty member participating in such tours.
9. Students must carry security ID cards with details of their parents or local guardians and their contact numbers.
10. The heads of Departments should also ensure prior permission for the tour and get written permission from one of the parents or the local guardian for each student.
11. Participating students must be given an undertaking that they will abide by the rules and guidelines throughout the tour. Undertaking from the parents freeing the institution from the risk of personal and material loss if incurred during the visit should be submitted by each and every student.
12. Students must produce a medical fitness certificate before going on tour. Accompanying faculty members must be given an undertaking that they will take care of the students and ensure that rules are followed.
13. If any complaint/misbehavior is reported against student during IV, the college shall take appropriate punitive measures ranging from suspension to termination depending upon the case.
14. Faculty members can face disciplinary action if the safety of the students is compromised.
15. First aid for the students and faculty members participating in such tours should be arranged by the institution.

Internship Policy

Internship Policy

Policy Statement

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) encourages students to participate in internships in order to gain practical real-world career-related experience within a professional setting. Internships allow students to explore professions, and develop career-related skills and abilities while gaining valuable work experience. This policy is valid for students/faculty/departments of those courses where Internship / on-the-job training / Hands on Training is an essential part of completing the required credits for the completion of the Course.

Objective

The main objective of the Policy is to make the students gain meaningful experience so as to help them meet their future career goals by obtaining an Internship (on-the-job training / Hands on Training / Experience in Industry)

Policy

To ensure that an experience whether it is a traditional internship or one conducted remotely or virtually is educational, and thus eligible to be considered a legitimate internship by the College for the fulfilment of academic credits, all the following criteria must be met:

- The experience must be an extension of the classroom: a learning experience that provides for applying the knowledge gained in the classroom. It must not be simply to advance the operations of the employer or be the work that a regular employee would routinely perform.
- The skills or knowledge learned must be transferable to other employment settings.
- Students should have an assigned on-site supervisor who is an experienced professional in the industry and a co-supervisor from the faculty members of the Department.
- There is routine feedback by the supervisor.
- Resources, equipment, and facilities provided by the host employer support learning objectives/goals.
- Students may not fulfil internships for organizations owned or managed by any immediate family members.

Internship Policy

Department Commitment

- The Head of the Department has to determine the suitability of companies proposed by the Placement Cell of the College or by the Students.
- The Head of the Department shall establish an internship oversight committee, which shall be responsible for establishing appropriate prerequisites and ensuring proper student preparation
- The Head of the Department shall assign a faculty as the Co-Supervisor of the student to help the student set learning objectives for the experience and to mentor, monitor student progress, resolve concerns, and provide feedback to the student on a regular basis.

General Guidelines and Procedures

The general procedure for arranging an internship is given below:

- Step 1: Request Letter/ Email from the Concerned Department of the college should go to industry to allot various slots of 2 to 8 weeks depending on the Schedule/Semester as approved by the Governing Council of the College.
- Step 2: The industry will confirm the training slots and the number of seats allocated for internships via a confirmation Letter/ Email. In case the students arrange the training themselves the confirmation letter will be submitted by the students to the concerned department. In addition, the internship slots may be conveyed through Telephonic or Written Communication (by Fax, Email, etc.) by the Faculty members who are particularly looking after the Internship of the students.
- Step 3: Students on joining Training at the concerned Industry / Organization should submit the Joining Report/Letters / Email.
- Step 4: Students undergo industrial training at the concerned Industry / Organization. In-between Faculty Member(s) evaluate(s) the performance of students once/twice. The evaluation Report of the students is submitted to the department.
- Step 5: Students will submit a training report along with the Training Certificate after completion of an internship
- Step 6: Evaluation of the Internship will be per the schedule proposed by the office of the Controller of Examination.

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Policy

Preamble

Intellectual property plays an important role in providing a competitive edge to an organization. The intangible assets of an organization such as knowhow, inventions, brands, designs and other creative and innovative products are, today, often more valuable than its physical assets. Keeping this in mind, this Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous), seeks to provide guidance to teaching and non-teaching staff, students, scholars, and outside agencies on the practices and the rules of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) regarding IPR and obligations which include the nature of Intellectual Property (IP), its ownership, exploitation, technology transfer and confidentiality requirements. The IPR policy is expected to fulfil the commitment of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) to promote academic freedom and provide a conducive environment for research and development.

Applicability

This policy shall be applicable to all employees of St. Albert's College (Autonomous), as well as other personnel associated with any activity of the College, such as, but not limited to Research, Consultancy or Education Programmes, and covers different classes of IP including Patents, Designs, Trade Marks/Service marks, Copyright, Integrated Circuits Layout, Trade Secret and confidential information.

Any alterations in this policy will not be effective until the Intellectual Property Rights Committee (IPRC)¹ takes a unanimous decision, which is approved by the Governing Council of the College and such changes would be effective for inventions and other research results arising in the future.

Staff of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is required to observe policy on IPR as may be decided by the Governing Council from time to time.

Disclosure

When the creators believe that they have generated patentable or commercialisable IP, they shall report it promptly in writing along with relevant documents, data and information, to IPRC using the Invention Disclosure Form of St. Albert's College (Autonomous). Disclosure is a critical part of the IP protection process for claiming the ownership. The information shall constitute a full and complete disclosure of the nature, particulars and other details of the IP, identification of all persons who constitute the creator(s) of the property, and a statement of whether the creator believes he or she owns the right to the IP disclosed, or not, with reasons

Confidentiality

All employees of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and other personnel associated with any activity of the College shall treat all IP related information which has been disclosed to the IPRC and/or whose rights are assigned to the College, or whose rights rest with the employees of the College, as confidential. Such confidentiality shall be maintained till such date as is demanded by the relevant contract, if any, between the concerned parties unless such knowledge is in the public domain or is generally available to the public. Having filled the Disclosure Form, the creator shall maintain confidentiality i.e. refrain from disclosing the details, unless authorized otherwise in writing by the Principal and the Manager of the College, until the College has assessed the possibility of commercialisation of the IP.

Subject to the right of academic freedom, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) staff shall not directly, except in the proper course of their duties, either during or after a period of their appointment, disclose to any third party or use for their own purposes or benefit or the purposes of any third party, any confidential information about the business of the College unless that information is public knowledge or he/she is required by law to disclose it.

Evaluation Decisions

The IPRC of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will evaluate the disclosure made by the creator and determine whether there is a good prima facie case for believing that the IP has economic value and it needs IPR protection.

IT Policy

This policy applies to all campus facilities, equipment and services that are managed by the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Digital Infrastructure Management Cell, including off-site data storage, computing and telecommunications equipment. This policy also applies to application-related services purchased from commercial cloud services, and Internet-related applications and connectivity.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) users shall also apply this policy when using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT resources to navigate through networks or computing systems beyond the local systems.

Use of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) technology resources shall be for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of information and furtherance of education, research, and administering missions of the college. The use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) technology resources will be consistent with the purposes and objectives of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) .

All computer equipment may or may not be attached to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network. However, to protect these resources from misuse and/or accidental damage, these resources will still be set up by the DIMC team to require the use of login accounts. The same procedures for requesting network login accounts will be followed for this type of resource, despite their lack of actual network connectivity.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources that are covered under this policy, but is not limited to, the following:

1. LAN and WAN network equipment and appliances
2. Servers, blade centers and virtual server appliances
3. Server operating systems and data base management software
4. Print servers and enterprise printers
5. Distance Learning Equipment

USE OF ST. ALBERT'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS) INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) owns all College computing systems and applications. This policy is intended to provide campus users with guidelines for responsible and appropriate utilization of these College computing and technology resources. This policy supplements the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Personnel Policy and Procedures Manual. Rapid change in technology is perpetual and St. Albert's College (Autonomous) reserves the right to determine, at any time, what constitutes appropriate use of technology resources covered in this policy. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is responsible for overseeing the appropriate use of College Technology Resources and ensuring compliance with tribal, state and federal law. This policy is intended to provide College employees, students, and other users of these resources with guidelines for responsible and appropriate use. Additional policies, procedures and standards may also apply to the use of computer assets. This policy assumes that all St. Albert's College (Autonomous) employees and students will act honestly, responsibly and with good judgment to protect these resources and to fulfill the responsibilities of proper ethics.

A. GOALS

The goals of the use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computers policy are to:

1. Help assure the integrity and reliability of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) internal networks, hosts on those networks and any computing resource connected to them.
2. Ensure the security and privacy of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer systems and networks.
3. Ensure the protection and retention of sensitive College data.
4. Establish appropriate guidelines for the use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) - owned technology on and off- campus.

5. Effectively combat the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material by users of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network, without unduly interfering with educational and research use of the network.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES

All users of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network have a responsibility to comply with this policy and to understand their responsibilities. This includes the requirement for confidentiality, retention and access to records detailed there.

1. Confidentiality, Retention and Access to Electronic Records

a. All St. Albert's College (Autonomous) employees should be aware that electronic mail, facsimile transmissions, and voice mail are technologies that may create an electronic record. An electronic record is reproducible and, therefore, could ultimately be disclosed to third parties. Such records are considered writings and all writings may be disclosed for audit or legitimate St. Albert's College (Autonomous) operational or management purposes. Whatever an employee sends or receives on a College e-mail account is the property of the College and can be accessed or viewed by the College without notice. All records and information generated and stored on electronic message systems is kept according to appropriate e-mail retention schedules.

b. Education records of students attending the College are confidential and can only be released in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) and the administrative rules of the College.

2. Logging and Monitoring

a. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has the right to log and monitor employee use of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT Resources and to ensure their appropriate use for business-related privileges. This may include, but is not limited to, review of employee computers, file server space, user accounts and all electronic documents. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) employees should not expect privacy in their use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) state resources.

C. GENERAL EXCEPTIONS

The use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) resources shall be for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of information and furtherance of education, research, and administration of missions of the college. Employees may not use St. Albert's College (Autonomous) resources, including any person, money or property, for private benefit or for the personal gain of the employee or any other person. However, employees may make occasional, but limited, personal use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology resources only if all the following conditions are met:

1. Prior permission of the Chairman / DTL is acquired
2. There is little or no cost to the College
3. Any use is brief in duration and occurs infrequently.
4. The use does not interfere with the performance of the employee's official duties.
5. The use does not disrupt other employees and does not obligate them to make a personal use of resources.
6. The use does not compromise the security, privacy, or integrity of the College network, information, or software.

D. PROHIBITED USES

The use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources is strictly intended for use by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) employees, students and authorized beneficiaries. This prohibits others, such as family members and friends, from using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources for any purpose. Additionally, the College specifically prohibits certain use by anyone, including employees, including:

restriction does not prohibit such access or retention of such materials if they are being used solely for a specific academic purpose.

13. Downloading software or files via the Internet for personal use.

14. Any activity using excessive network band-width, such as downloading music, videos. Such activity is prohibited, even if the use is brief in duration or occurs infrequently, because it compromises St. Albert's College (Autonomous) 's network and legitimate business activities. However, this prohibition does not apply to students when being done as directed by a faculty member for specific educational purposes.

15. Private use of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources removed from St. Albert's College (Autonomous) , even if there is no cost to the College.

16. Hacking, attempting to subvert or assisting others to breach the security of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network or Information Technology Resources, or to facilitate unauthorized access.

17. Use of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources to create, disseminate or execute self-replicating or destructive programs (e.g., viruses, worms, malware).

18. Participating in activities involving disclosure or masquerading or defaming the college.

19. Viewing, copying, altering or destroying data, software, documentation or data communications belonging to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) or to another individual or entity without permission.

20. Allowing another individual (whether they might otherwise be authorized to use the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources or not) to use a login account credential.

USE OF THE ST. ALBERT'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS) NETWORK AND DATA MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) owns the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources including the network systems and applications. This policy is intended to provide St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network users with guidelines for responsible and appropriate utilization of these resources. Use of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network and St. Albert's College (Autonomous) data management systems shall be for the purpose of facilitating the exchange and storage of information, including information on students and/or employees, and compliance with and furtherance of, the education, research, and administrative missions of the college.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) reserves the right to determine at any time what constitutes appropriate use of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network and any computing access and services provided by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) .

A. GOALS

The goals of this policy are to:

1. Assure the integrity and reliability of the College internal networks, systems on those networks, databases, legacy systems, web-accessible resources, and any computing resource connected to them.
2. Ensure the security and privacy of the College computer systems, networks and data.
3. Ensure the protection and retention of sensitive data.
4. Establish appropriate guidelines for the use of the College network and data, whether accessed from on or off-campus.

B. PROHIBITED USE

2. Use of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network or data management system to create, disseminate or execute self-replicating or destructive programs (e.g., viruses, worms, Trojan horses, malware).
3. Viewing, copying, altering or destroying data, software, documentation or data communications belonging to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) or to another individual without permission.
4. Individuals allowing another individual (regardless of whether they might otherwise be authorized to use the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network and/or St. Albert's College (Autonomous) data management systems) to use their login account password.
5. Accessing data for any purpose other than to perform the official duties of a St. Albert's College (Autonomous) position.
6. Unauthorized disclosure of information to a third party.
7. Bypassing the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) data management systems "time-out" feature, unless specifically authorized by the DTL.

C. RESPONSIBILITIES

All users of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT Resources, including its network and data management systems, have a responsibility to comply with this policy and to understand their responsibilities and all expectations as spelled out in their job duties. This includes the requirement for confidentiality, retention and access to records stored within the College systems. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DTL and its representatives also have responsibilities under this policy. These include the responsibilities for logging and monitoring networks, data management systems and electronic messaging systems.

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT POLICY

It is the policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) to fully respect all rights that exist in any material protected by the copyright laws of the India while also encouraging usage of the material that furthers the educational mission of St. Albert's College (Autonomous). This Policy provides guidance to faculty, staff, and students, and beneficiaries on the usage of copyrighted material.

A. TECHNOLOGY-BASED DETERRENT

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) uses software and firewall to manage bandwidth utilization on campus.

B. COMMUNITY EDUCATION

All students are given the opportunity to attend a session at orientation on current technology issues. This session addresses copyright infringement and other common policy violations that result through technology. At the start of college year an email is sent to all currently enrolled students from DIMC. This email provides a number of notifications and guidelines in compliance with federal and state regulations.

C. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING UNAUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTION OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

Upon receiving notification of copyright infringement through a takedown notice, DTL has a set procedure of enforcement. The infringing user is identified. First time offenders are disconnected from the network and sent a notification of infringement as well as a request to agree not to share copyright material on the network without proper permission. The user is afforded the opportunity to meet in person to discuss the takedown notice. The user may be disconnected up to two weeks. During the disconnection period students still have access to the network using lab and checkout workstations. Further infringement violations will be referred to the disciplinary procedure. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) disallows the sharing of copyrighted material.

INTERNET USAGE AND SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

A. PURPOSE

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) operates an internal private network as part of its educational infrastructure. It also extends and operates external connections to the Internet. The purpose of this policy is to clearly delineate the limitations of Internet use available through that network.

The internet access of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is through a dedicated network provided exclusively for the benefit of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) students, employees, staff, and others directly involved in campus life and the academic community. The private St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network is available through both wired and wireless terminals, but access is not extended to the public at-large. Special requests for public access will be reviewed on the same basis as the Third-Party Access.

Public access to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) wireless network is not allowed. To ensure the continued privacy of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network, security measures, policies and standards are implemented to only grant access to the network through campus facilities or through authorized user authentication and access codes, such as mac id authorization, login accounts and passwords. Devices using the College's wireless network will be configured by the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DIMC support personnel to require the registration of such a wireless device to an authorized St. Albert's College (Autonomous) user.

B. INTERNET USAGE POLICY

Employees, students, and beneficiaries are responsible for reading and adhering to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Personnel, Policies, and Procedures when using the Internet. Violations of certain policies can occur through the use of the Internet. Investigations of violations of those policies can include evidence obtained through the use of the Internet.

IT Policy

If a user of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Internet service is unsure about what constitutes acceptable Internet usage, the user should ask their supervisor or the concerned DIMC member for further guidance and clarification.

1. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) users are expected to use the Internet responsibly and productively.

2. Activities include research and educational tasks that may be found via the Internet that would help in a staff, faculty and student's role.

3. The student personal use is allowed to the extent that it does not interfere with business and education and to the extent there is no unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) reserves the right to limit or discontinue personal use by blocking streaming and social media sites or other personal use activities if the use impedes educational network communication, violates the intellectual property rights of others, or otherwise constitutes unlawful or unauthorized access.

4. Employees accessing the Internet with College-owned equipment shall limit their personal use to a minimum and usage should not be performed during business hours.

5. All Internet data that is composed, transmitted and/or received by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer, network, and internet systems is considered to belong to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and is recognized as part of its official data. It is therefore subject to disclosure for legal reasons or to other appropriate third parties. Employees have no expectation of privacy of their internet searches, internet browser history, or other data composed, transmitted, and/or received through St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer, network, and internet systems.

6. The equipment, services and technology used to access the Internet are the property of St. Albert's College (Autonomous). The College reserves the right to monitor Internet traffic and access data that is composed, sent or received through its online connections.

7. All sites and downloads may be monitored and/or blocked by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DIMC if they are deemed to be harmful, unlawful, unauthorized, and/or not productive to business.

8. The installation of software on any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) equipment including, but not limited to, instant messaging software is strictly prohibited.

9. Prohibited use of the Internet by Staff, Faculty and Students includes all harmful, unlawful, or unauthorized use. This includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Streaming radio or music services using College computers in College offices during business hours.
- b. Unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material.
- c. Using computers to perpetrate any form of fraud, and/or software, film or music piracy.
- d. Stealing, using, or disclosing someone else's password without authorization.
- d. Downloading, copying or pirating software, media files and electronic files that are copyrighted or without authorization.
- e. Sharing confidential material, trade secrets, or proprietary information outside of the organization.
- f. Hacking into unauthorized websites.
- g. Sending or posting information that is defamatory to the college, its products/services, colleagues and/or consumers.
- h. Introducing malicious software onto or jeopardizing the security of the College network and/or systems.
- i. Defeating or attempting to defeat security restrictions on college systems and applications
- j. Sending or posting chain letters, solicitations, or advertisements not related to business purposes or activities.
- k. Passing off personal views as representing those of St. Albert's College (Autonomous).

- i. Academic cheating and plagiarism.
- m. Accessing any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) course materials for which distribution and use has been specifically prohibited by the instructor. This includes, but is not limited to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) materials found on crowdsourcing course sites which contain materials such as graded quizzes and exams, homework answers, etc., along with any questions that are or might be intended for future quizzes and exams.

C. SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

This policy provides guidance for staff, faculty and student use of social media, which should be broadly understood for purposes of this policy to include blogs, wikis, microblogs, message boards, chat rooms, electronic newsletters, online forums, social networking sites, and other sites and services that permit users to share information and media with others in a contemporaneous manner.

Social media use should not interfere with employee's or student's responsibilities at St. Albert's College (Autonomous). The primary purpose for St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer systems is to be for business and academic purposes.

The following principles apply to professional use of social media on behalf of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) as well as personal use of social media when referencing St. Albert's College (Autonomous).

1. Users should be aware of the effect their actions may have on their reputation and the reputation St. Albert's College (Autonomous). The information that users post or publish may be public information or otherwise accessible for a long time.
2. Users should be aware that St. Albert's College (Autonomous) may observe content and information made available by users through social media. Users should use their best judgment in posting material that is either inappropriate or harmful to St. Albert's College (Autonomous), its employees or consumers.

3. Although not an exclusive list, some specific examples of prohibited social media conduct include posting commentary, content, or images that are unlawful, unauthorized, defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous, or that can create a hostile workplace or student community environment.
4. Employees are not to publish, post or release any information that is considered confidential. If there are questions about what is considered confidential or protected by FERPA, employees should check with the DIMC.
5. Social media networks, blogs and other types of online content sometimes generate press and media attention or legal questions. Employees should refer these inquiries to the authorized St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DIMC member.
6. If users encounter a situation while using social media that threatens to become antagonistic or threatens to harm others or themselves, this should be reported either to DIMC or the office. Supervisors and DIMC members must report every incident to the DTL and their chain of command.
7. When using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer systems, use of social media for business purposes is allowed (ex: Facebook, Twitter, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) blogs and LinkedIn), but personal use of social media networks or personal blogging of online content is prohibited and could result in disciplinary action.
8. If employees, students, or beneficiaries publish content after-hours that involves work or subjects associated with St. Albert's College (Autonomous), a disclaimer should be used, such as this: "The opinions on this site are my own and may not represent St. Albert's College (Autonomous) positions, strategies or opinions."
9. It is imperative that employees, students, and beneficiaries keep St. Albert's College (Autonomous) related social media accounts separate from personal accounts. Use of College email addresses to establish personal social media accounts is strictly prohibited.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SECURITY POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) acknowledges the obligation to provide adequate security and protection of all Information Technology (IT) usage within its domain of ownership and control. This policy serves as an umbrella that governs all other St. Albert's College (Autonomous) policies pertaining to IT usage on campus, and complies with the appropriate IT policies. It is also the intent of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) to take precautions to prevent revealing specific security policies, standards and practices containing information that may be confidential or private regarding St. Albert's College (Autonomous) business. *

The St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT security policy is acknowledged as a "dynamic" document that may require alteration periodically to address changes in technology, applications, procedures, legal and social imperatives, and unanticipated changes.

A. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SECURITY

It is the sole responsibility of the DTL to provide oversight management of all tasks and procedures that directly pertain to maintaining IT security on campus. It is the responsibility of all members of the college community to participate and share this obligation, as specified by all supportive policies and procedures pertaining to technology use on campus.

B. IT SECURITY

IT security is defined as:

1. Protecting the integrity, security, availability and confidentiality of information assets managed by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) .
2. Protecting information assets from unauthorized release or modification, and from accidental or intentional damage or destruction.
3. Protecting technology assets such as hardware, software, telecommunications, networks (infrastructure) from unauthorized use.

C. MAINTENANCE OF SECURITY

Prepared by:
Vice Chairman

Revised date: 02-02-2021

Approved by:
Chairman

Revision number: 1

IT Policy

IT security will be maintained by upholding the following guidelines and standards:

1. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will operate in a manner consistent with the goals of the Information Technology Department to maintain a shared, trusted environment within St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and within the College community system for the protection of all data relating to business and education.

2. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will maintain an IT security audit portfolio that includes comprehensive documentation of all security processes and configuration of all firewalls and defensive mechanisms, such as virus and malware protection will be included in this audit portfolio. This portfolio and all documentation related to any security policies will be maintained by the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DIMC. The templates are provided in the Appendix A.

3. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will ensure that all college employees are appropriately familiar with all IT security policies and procedures, and are aware of their personal responsibilities to protect IT resources on campus. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) DIMC will provide training to each employee in the security procedures for which they are responsible.

4. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will review its security processes, policies, procedures, and practices annually. In the event of any significant changes to its business, computing, or telecommunications environments, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will make appropriate updates as necessary.

5. A compliance audit of this IT security policy will be conducted when deemed necessary. The nature and scope of the audit must be commensurate with the extent that St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is dependent on secure IT to accomplish its critical business functions. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will maintain documentation showing the results of its review or audit and the plan for correcting material deficiencies revealed by the review or audit.

D. RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIMC

1. Providing the college with secure business applications, services, infrastructures, and procedures for addressing the business needs of the College.

2. Following and enforcing internal security standards established for creating and maintaining secure sessions for application access.

3. Notifying the appropriate administrator(s) when an individual or individuals have knowingly compromised IT security on campus. The DTL is not responsible for determining disciplinary action for individuals who violate IT security policies. This responsibility will be managed by the respective office, administrator, or local law enforcement, depending on the scope and nature of the violation.

E. SECURITY BREACH NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE

This procedure governs the actions of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) employee who discovers or is notified of a breach or possible breach of the security of unencrypted personal information collected and retained by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) as computerized data. This breach can be the result of a compromise of a St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing system or network, the loss or theft of any physical device in which personal information is stored, or the loss or theft of any storage medium upon which personal information is maintained. If the security of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) system storing or processing computerized data that includes unencrypted personal information is compromised and a notification must be issued.

The DIMC will take any measures to determine the scope of the breach and restore the integrity of the affected data system.

- i. If a report is made to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) office of the bursar of the theft of a computing or storage device, the office will:
 1. Follow their normal procedures regarding theft of college property
 2. Report it to law enforcement, and act as liaison with any law enforcement agency involved in the situation.
 3. Notify the DIMC of the incident.
- ii. If a report is made to the DIMC of the theft of a computing or storage device, ITD will:
 1. Notify the office of the bursar.
 2. Provide any inventory information to the person concerned of the theft.
 3. Participate in any investigatory actions as directed by the PRO.

2. Technical Breach

- i. A technical breach is defined as the discovery by technical support staff of a breach of security of a computer or the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network.
- ii. If the presenting incident is discovery of a network breach, the DIMC technical support personnel will:
 1. Begin network and computer technical investigations addressing intrusion detection and incident response. This will continue until the security and technical aspects of the situation are resolved.
 2. Report to the DTL, all aspects of the breach and how it occurred.
 3. Determine if a person or group responsible can be named.
 4. Determine safeguards that need to be put in place to prevent a reoccurrence.
 5. In some circumstances, it may be appropriate to report a breach of the security of the network or St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computers to law enforcement, as well.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SECURITY PLAN

This document summarizes the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) 's comprehensive written Information Technology (IT) Security Plan. In particular, this document describes the IT Security Plan elements pursuant to which the Institution intends to ensure the security and confidentiality of covered records, protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to the security of such records, and protect against the unauthorized access or use of such records or information in ways that could result in substantial harm or inconvenience to the College's IT consumers.

A. DESIGNATION OF REPRESENTATIVE

The Digital Infrastructure Management Cell Team Leader (DTL) is designated as the IT personnel who shall be responsible for coordinating and overseeing the IT Security Plan. The DTL may designate other representatives of the DIMC team to cover and coordinate a particular element of the IT Security Plan.

B. SCOPE

The IT Security Plan applies to any record containing nonpublic financial information about a student or other third party who has a relationship with the Institution, whether in paper, electronic or other form that is handled or maintained by or on behalf of the Institution or its affiliates. For these purposes, the term nonpublic financial information shall mean any information:

- 1) A student or other third party provides in order to obtain a financial service from the Institution,
- 2) About a student or other third party resulting from any transaction with the Institution involving a financial service, or
- 3) Otherwise obtained about a student or other third party in connection with providing a financial service to the person.

C. ELEMENTS OF THE IT SECURITY PLAN

1) Risk Identification and Assessment: The institution intends, as part of the IT Security Plan, to undertake to identify and assess external and internal risk to the security, confidentiality, and integrity of nonpublic financial information that could result in the unauthorized disclosure, misuse, alteration, destruction, or other compromise of such information. In implementing the IT Security Plan, the DTL will establish procedures for identifying and assessing such risk in each relevant area of the Institution's operation, including:

a. Employee training and management: The DTL will coordinate with representatives in the Institution's Human Resources and Financial Aid offices to evaluate the effectiveness of the Institution's procedures and practices relating to access to and use of student records, including financial aid information. This evaluation will include assessing the effectiveness of the Institution's current Personnel, Policies and Procedures Manual and the IT Policy.

b. Information System and Information Processing and Disposal: The DTL will coordinate with representatives of the Institution's Financial Aid and College Office to assess the risks to nonpublic financial information associated with the Institution's information system, including network and software design, information processing, and the storage, transmission, and disposal of nonpublic financial information.

USE OF THE COLLEGENETWORK AND DATA MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS POLICY

The DTL will also assess procedures for monitoring potential information security threats associated with software systems and for managing security updates for software and operating systems.

A. DETECTING, PREVENTING AND RESPONDING TO ATTACKS

The DTL will coordinate with other relevant units to evaluate procedures for and methods of detecting, preventing, and responding to attacks, other systems failures, and network access. The DTL will evaluate the IT security policies and procedures for coordinating responses to network attacks and developing incident response teams and policies. The DTL may elect to delegate to a representative of the DIMC the responsibility for monitoring and disseminating information about known security attacks and other threats to the integrity of networks utilized by the Institution.

B. DESIGNING AND IMPLEMENTING SAFEGUARDS

The risk assessment and analysis shall apply to all methods of handling or disposing of nonpublic financial information, whether in electronic, paper, or other form. The DTL will implement safeguards to control the risks identified through such assessments and to regularly test or otherwise monitor the effectiveness of such safeguards. Such testing and monitoring may be accomplished through existing network monitoring and problem escalation procedures.

C. OVERSEEING SERVICE PROVIDERS

The DTL shall institute methods for selecting and retaining only those service providers that are capable of maintaining appropriate safeguards for nonpublic financial information of students and other third parties to which they have access. In addition, the DTL will work with other designated institutional officials to develop and incorporate standard, contractual protections applicable to third party service providers, which will require such providers to implement and maintain appropriate safeguards.

COMPUTER LABS POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) provides students access to computing technology resources in numerous labs and computer classrooms across all campuses. Since the student population on campus is very dynamic and diverse, it is imperative that careful articulation of the policies, expectations, and standards for use of these resources be provided to them, and to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) staff and faculty who support those students in their educational endeavors. This policy is intended to meet that imperative, and to provide all campus users with guidelines for responsible and appropriate use of these campus computing and technology resources. The primary purpose of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs is to provide computing technology resources for students and to facilitate the exchange of information related to, and in furtherance of the education, research and academic missions of the College.

A. GOALS

The goals of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs are to:

- 1) Provide a computer labs environment across centers that are supportive of learning.
- 2) Help assure the integrity and reliability of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) internal networks, hosts on those networks, and any computing resource connected to them.
- 3) Ensure the security and privacy of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer systems and networks.
- 4) Establish appropriate guidelines for the use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) - owned technology.

B. PROHIBITED USE

Using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Information Technology Resources for uses and/or communications that are specifically prohibited in the policy Use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) Computer Resources which violate any other St. Albert's College (Autonomous) policy, state and federal rule or law is strictly forbidden. Those specifically prohibited uses of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT resource include:

IT Policy

- 1) Subverting, attempting to subvert, or assisting others to subvert or breach the security of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network or other Information Technology Resource, or to facilitate unauthorized access.
- 2) Use of any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT Resource to create, disseminate or execute self-replicating or destructive programs (e.g., viruses, worms, Trojan horses).
- 3) Viewing, copying, altering or destroying data, software, documentation, or data communications belonging to St. Albert's College (Autonomous), or to another individual without permission.
- 4) Individuals allowing another individual (authorized or not to use the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT Resource) to use their login account password.
- 5) Disclosing access credentials or masquerading using access granted to another user.
- 6) Using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing resources for personal or private financial gain without written authorization.
- 7) Unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material.
- 8) Tampering or theft of equipments or devices of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) from within the lab.

C. ACCESS TO COMPUTING LABS

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs are open for computer use only under the leadership of authorized faculty, staff, for currently enrolled St. Albert's College (Autonomous) students. Access to any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing lab is managed through the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network.

- 1) All labs are to be monitored and proper registers are to be maintained
- 2) Non-student adult visitors may be allowed in monitored labs only with the prior permission of the Chairman or designee under the supervision of a DIMC member. In the event of a non-student visitor violating any provisions of this policy or the computer labs procedures, the lab-in-charge for the specific lab may instruct the visitor to leave. Non-student visitors will not be allowed into any unmonitored lab.

3) Faculty and staff may only use St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs in furtherance of their support of the learning objectives of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) students.

4) St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs will not be used to perform duties or tasks normally performed in the employee's office environment.

D. LABS AND CLASSROOMS

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) provides different types of computing facilities for use in supporting student learning on campus. These policies apply equally in all these facilities, unless exceptions are otherwise specifically stated. These facilities are: electronic classrooms, computer classrooms, specialized computer labs.

1) Electronic Classrooms provide multimedia capabilities for instruction from a single, centralized instructor station. These rooms are scheduled for use in the same manner as any other classroom at St. Albert's College (Autonomous) following standard St. Albert's College (Autonomous) policies and procedures.

2) Computer Classrooms provide hands-on technical instruction in a classroom environment. These labs are only available for use during those times that have been specifically scheduled. Registered must be maintained and students must be designated to a specific seat in the lab.

3) Specialized Labs are equipped with specialized hardware and software devoted to supporting the program's unique educational mission. These labs support such varying disciplines as physics, math and language, and are often assigned to students as a part of their regular class work. These labs are staffed by faculty and/or lab assistants who provide additional tutorial assistance within the program's specialty. Use of these labs are restricted to users taking the specific classes supported by the facility monitored through registers.

E. SENSITIVE MATERIALS

IT Policy

All St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs are considered shared public places. Users should be aware that some materials accessed on the Internet may be considered controversial, offensive, inappropriate or inaccurate. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) asks users, out of consideration for others, to take care not to display, or broadcast in any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) -shared public place, any images, sounds, or messages that could create an atmosphere of discomfort, harassment or intimidation for others, and to refrain from transmitting such images, sounds or messages to others using St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing resources.

In some situations, the display or broadcast of such materials is necessary to further a legitimate educational purpose. In these cases, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) asks that users be sensitive to the public nature of shared facilities and make arrangements to access these materials in a private environment.

In some situations, the display or broadcast of such materials, if unlawful or otherwise prohibited by this Policy could be grounds for disciplinary action.

F. GENERAL LAB RULES

1) Computing labs will only be used for legitimate academic purposes. Bags, food, and drinks are not permitted.

2) All St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs are intended to be quiet work and study environments, similar to a library. Users are encouraged to avoid excessive noise, keeping the level of conversational noise at a minimum.

3) Children under the age of 16 will not be allowed in any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer lab unless specific written authorization has been granted by the Chairman.

4) Operating hours Lab hours will be posted in each lab. All users shall complete their work, including obtaining any printouts, before closing time. Users are not permitted to stay in the computer lab areas after closing time. Refusal to comply may result in disciplinary actions.

5) Printers are provided in most St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs wherever necessary as a privilege for student use only; faculty and staff should refrain from printing in a lab. Users should exercise discretion in the use of printers in computing labs. Most programs have print preview functions which should be used prior to printing any final document. Print usage on the student network may be actively monitored for abuse. Those users identified as printing excessively will be notified and asked to comply with this policy.

6) Users may not store any files on the hard drives of any lab computers without specific permission from computing services. Faculty may, for a class in which the ability to store files locally is a part of the classroom curriculum, negotiate blanket permission to do this for students enrolled in their class. Users are encouraged to save often and to make frequent backups of their storage media.

7) Any student using any lab computer for non-educational purposes may be denied further access to the lab resource by a lab-in-charge or responsible teaching faculty in charge of the student.

8) St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will not be responsible for personal lost or stolen items left in any lab. Items found in the lab will be sent to the College office. Users should label all media with their name for easy identification, if misplaced.

9) Aggressive behavior will not be tolerated in any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer lab. If necessary, lab-in-charges will report incidents that cannot be resolved in a quiet, orderly manner to the tutor, Heads of the Departments, Vice-principal or principal. Disciplinary actions will be taken if the issue is escalated.

10) For safety reasons, it is important that computer lab users make an effort to keep aisles clear. Materials such as books and pens brought into a computer lab should be taken out when the user leaves. After classes held in computer labs, the faculty in charge of the specific class should ensure that students have cleaned and properly arranged their workspaces.

11) No equipment in any classroom lab may be moved within the classroom or removed from a lab without permission of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Bursar, or DTL. This includes all computer hardware, including monitors, mice and keyboards and peripheral devices, such as surge protectors, UPS or printers. No user should disconnect any technology resources from any computer or network connection, nor move any tables upon which computing equipment rests without prior approval. All damaged equipment discovered in any lab should be reported to the DIMC.

12) Users will be held responsible for the IT resources they use in any St. Albert's College (Autonomous) lab. Under no circumstances will users leave a computer unattended and unlocked for more than fifteen (15) minutes. Users should never leave their workstation unattended without first saving any data upon which they are working. If a computer in the open lab is left unattended for more than fifteen (15) minutes, lab-in-charges may log the user off the computer to make it available for other users. Any personal effects in the area of the computer will be moved.

13) Unauthorized access to accounts, files or data held on St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing systems, or the use of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computing systems and networks to access any other system without authorization is a violation of these policies and potentially a criminal offense. Such unauthorized access is strictly prohibited.

G. RESPONSIBILITIES

All users of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) computer labs have a responsibility to know, understand, and comply with this policy, to understand their responsibilities, and to meet all the expectations of this and all other St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT security policies and standards. These responsibilities include assumption of any civil and/or criminal liability which may arise from their individual use or misuse of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) technology resources.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES BY THIRD PARTIES POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) frequently provides access to its Information Technology Resources, including computer facilities, to private company resources, tribal offices and community members to conduct College business when such resources are not in direct use for business or academic purposes, provided such use substantially relates to and does not interfere with the mission of the College. This access to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) facilities includes access to the wireless network, computer classrooms, computer labs, and electronic classrooms on campus.

A. AUTHORITY

The DIMC Team Leader or designee has primary responsibility for all aspects of third-party access to all St. Albert's College (Autonomous) IT resources. These entities must agree to comply with this Policy, the security policies, and standards of St. Albert's College (Autonomous). St. Albert's College (Autonomous), through DIMC members, reserves the right to determine, at any time, what constitutes appropriate use of the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) technology resources and the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) network resources, including any access and/or any computing services provided by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) .

B. PERMISSION FOR TEMPORARY USE

Any of these entities must provide documentation of the duration, the list of systems and access required and the location where access is required. This request must be approved by the DTL and forwarded to the Chairman or designee. The DIMC personnel will create a Help Desk Ticket to document the access and actions taken during the period of access.

C. LIMITATIONS ON USE

All third-party use will have a documented duration which will be reviewed at the end of the duration. Access will need to be renewed with a new approval for the level of access.

D. SECURITY RIGHTS

SOFTWARE LICENSING COMPLIANCE POLICY

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) acquires software licenses for the use and distribution to faculty, staff and students for productivity and efficiency of the operation of the college and its interaction with the students. St. Albert's College (Autonomous) expects all students, faculty, and staff members to comply with applicable local, state, and federal laws governing licensed software. This policy ensures that St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and all its employees and students follow the letter and spirit of both state and federal law regarding software licensing.

TECHNOLOGY HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE ACQUISITION POLICY

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines and the process for acquiring and maintaining institution-wide hardware, software and cloud services identified as mission critical. The intent of the policy is to ensure that computer technology and services comply with College defined support standards and security safeguards.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES

Enterprise network, server and storage appliances for institutional-wide applications will be acquired by the DIMC in consultation with the finance committee (Federal/State Fund) or finance council (Management Fund) as per the funding source. The DIMC Center, IMC server rooms and closets are specially designed with the environment conducive to equipment efficiency and with backup power. The DIMC is responsible for the system management, updates, upgrades and new releases. These systems will be managed and maintained regularly to assure all maintenance procedures are properly scheduled. Planning of such processes will be coordinated with all users impacted. DIMC is responsible for all back-up and restore procedures. All systems will be backed up regularly and with efficiency for restore times. Here are the requirements when acquiring this type of equipment.

1. All computer technology for business and academics must be purchased through ITD.
2. All computer technology assets purchased with College funds (Federal, State, or Management) are the property of the College and not a specific faculty or staff member's department property. College funds include, but are not limited to, grant funds, restricted, or unrestricted funds.
3. Funding for maintenance or support agreements must be coordinated with ITD prior to purchase.
4. DIMC must approve any server or specialized appliance requiring network connectivity prior to acquisition. In addition, the device must meet the required conditions for connectivity.

TECHNOLOGY HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE REPLACEMENT AND UPGRADE POLICY

A. PURPOSE

This document defines the policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) regarding the replacements of all college-owned technology equipment at the end of its life cycle and also the upgrades of institution-wide software. Adequate computer and network hardware and software are essential for the delivery of instructions, student learning, research and creative activities; and for the efficient and effective management of the institution. Rapid changes in technology require that a well-managed institution have a systematic plan for upgrading and replacing technology to ensure that it offers access to the most basic services. The purpose for this plan is to:

1. Provide consistency of hardware and maintain a standard that will limit the variety of parts and supplies.
2. Regulate the purchasing of computers by establishing a useful life table.
3. Improve the level of support by limiting the number of operating systems, office productivity products and other standard software installed in these systems.
4. Reduce the downtime and outages because of outdated or incompatible equipment.
5. Provide a guideline for evaluation or assessment of IT infrastructure on a regular basis
 - a. To assess bandwidth usage and the need to expand or enhance capabilities
 - b. To reduce possible failures due to normal aging.
 - c. To assure sustainability by replacing it with newer technology.
6. Provide sufficient backup solutions for power, network equipment and server systems for redundancy and high availability.

Prepared by:
Vice Chairman

Revised date: 02-02-2021

Approved by:
Chairman

Revision number: 1

IT Policy

7. To preemptively implement necessary changes. This systematic plan is meant to align with the College's Strategic Plan and to provide a framework for meeting the technology needs of the stakeholders of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) . Input from the DIMC,Chairman, Vice-chairmen, Registrar, Bursar, Principal, and Deans could help encapsulate varying ideas for a more complete plan.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Administration/Department Heads - Each department head is responsible for identifying any exception (earlier or delayed replacements/upgrades) necessary to ensure that an employee can effectively perform his/her job duties. This information is then passed on to the DTL or designee for the replacement or upgrade process. The Bursar is responsible for reviewing and approving requested exceptions and divisional budgets.

2. DTL or designee is responsible for acquiring estimates for replacements and upgrades and also executing equipment replacements institution-wide including software upgrades according to established replacement cycle. The DTL also makes technical decisions on equipment and software standards and upgrades and replacements based on industry trends, software development life cycles, costs and risks to systems stability.

C. PLAN STATEMENT

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) will maintain modern computer and network hardware and software capable of supporting its educational and business activities. To accomplish this, technology hardware will have to be budgeted for replacement. If a hardware item is determined to be irreparable by DIMC or if the cost to repair exceeds the current market value of the item, the item may be replaced earlier than indicated in the table above with all costs for replacement covered by the College responsible department budget.

PRINTER STANDARDIZATION POLICY

Purchasing will standardize on a network printer from a vendor using special government rate pricing for administrative and institutional use at the College. Each printer will come with built-in double-sided duplex printing capability and a 1-year warranty. Extended warranties can also be purchased with proper justification. Choices will include black and white, color, and multifunction printing. Standardization will provide for better College discounts and support. It will also enable us to keep our printing services sustainable. Approved printer model has undergone reviews and testing to confirm its usability, functionality and supportability on the DIMC network print queue system, and will be made easily accessible on managed computers. Purchase of the recommended printers will ensure a quick and smooth installation. In the event you feel you have printing needs not addressed by the recommended model, please contact the DIMC or submit a Help Desk Ticket. All printers already connected to the St. Albert's College (Autonomous) networks and print server will continue to be supported as per the fund policy.

Leave Policy

Policy Statement

St. Albert's College (Autonomous)'s policy is that all employees are entitled to leave in accordance with the relevant awards/agreements and statutory provisions. Where the attached practices conflict with employment law for an employee, or group of employees, the law will take precedence.

General conditions governing grant of leave

The following principles shall govern grant of leave to an employee: -

1. Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Exigency of College's service requires discretion to refuse, postpone, curtail or revoke leave of any description or to recall to duty any employee already on leave is reserved with the authority competent to grant it.
2. All kinds of leave, except Commuted leave will lapse on cessation of the employee's service with the College whether as a result of discharge, dismissal, retirement, death or otherwise.
3. Leave shall not be availed of without obtaining prior sanction of the competent authority. Application for Commuted Leave, in particular, must be submitted in writing, to the competent authority sufficiently in advance not less than 15 days from the date of commencement of the leave. In case, an employee is compelled to absent himself from duty on account of unforeseen circumstances, without obtaining prior sanction, application for leave should be submitted on the day of resumption of duty or within 5 days from the day of absence (whichever is earlier).
4. Leave may be pre-fixed or suffixed to holidays. Intervening holidays during the leave, except in case of Casual Leave, shall count as part of leave.
5. An employee prior to proceeding on leave shall intimate to the competent authority the leave address and shall keep the authority informed of any change of location/address during the leave period.

Leave Policy

6. All kinds of leave should be availed after obtaining prior sanction as far as possible, including Leave Without Pay, when no other type of leave is available in individual's account. In case prior sanction is not possible due to unavoidable reasons, the employee would be expected to inform the concerned officer over phone or in writing of such absence. Such employee should submit leave application without fail immediately on reporting for duty, In case of failure to do so, the entire period of leave so availed shall be treated as 'loss of pay' without making any reference to the employee.
7. Application for leave on medical ground shall be accompanied by a certificate of Registered Medical Practitioner holding , graduate degree; Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) or its equivalent) indicating the nature and probable duration of illness. The teacher returning from leave on medical ground, shall produce a certificate of fitness.
8. If the teacher frequently applies for medical leave with short intervals, he/she may be referred to the Medical Authority to examine the state of his health, the period of recovery and whether he would be fit for duty after rest and treatment.
9. Application for extension of leave already sanctioned, if any, should be submitted well in time. The competent authority shall have the power to grant or refuse the extension of leave sought by an employee.
10. The competent authority for sanction of leave to the employees will be as notified from time to time.
11. Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in these regulations, the grant of any kind of leave shall be sole discretion of the Chairman/Principal and their decision shall be final and binding.

Policy

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) have both Aided and Self-Financing employees who are entitled for various leaves depending upon their status. For the further understanding of the policy, the said policy have been categorised into Leave Policy for Aided Staff and Leave Policy for Self-Financing Staff.

Performance Appraisal Policy

Policy Statement

All employees will undergo performance appraisal at the end of every academic year and they will have to submit their annual performance based appraisal document to their immediate superior - the Head of the Department/ Vice-Principal/ Principal/ Chairman, based on the level of their role. All performance appraisals will be timed from April to June to ensure that performance management is a regular responsibility of the Office of Chairman, rather than an occasional one. Performance appraisals are completely separate from remuneration reviews.

Objective

The objective of the performance appraisal system is to constantly monitor progress of the capabilities and achievements of employees, to facilitate the ongoing development of team members and to identify when an employee has demonstrated readiness for greater responsibility.

The objective of individual performance appraisals is to review overall work performance on the basis of both capabilities and achievements of specific performance objectives. Performance appraisals also provide feedback to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) on the achievability of objectives and the capability of employees on managing various duties assigned to them.

Process

The performance based appraisal format would be shared with the employee in the mid-week of April which has to be duly submitted to the immediate supervisor by the first Monday of May.

Performance Appraisal Policy

The immediate supervisor would comment on the forms submitted by the employees and the said forms would be forwarded to the level-2 supervisors of the employee by 15th of May (or the next working day if 15th is a holiday) in that year. The level-2 supervisors would comment on the forms submitted by the immediate supervisor and the said forms would be forwarded to the Principal within 10 working days.

The Principal/Vice Chairman/Chairman and the employee would agree on the date for a performance appraisal meeting in the month of June. The Principal/Vice Chairman/Chairman would meet the employee to discuss their performance, to set targets for the next academic year and to address any grievance raised by the employee on his/her evaluation by the supervisor. The Principal/Vice Chairman/Chairman would prepare a written performance appraisal in the approved format and file the same in the employee's record within 5 working days of the meeting.

2. Admission Process

All the applicants (Representatives of the Promoters/Directors have to initiate the application with the signatures of all the Promoters/Directors) shall have to read and agree to the “terms and conditions” of AIC, only then their applications shall be processed. While submitting the applications, applicants have to disclose information on executive involvement of the promoters/Directors in other companies or commercial entities.

Stage 1.

Submit Executive Summary/ Business Plan

As a first step in the admission process, the prospective incubating company should submit an online Incubation Application (aic.alberts.edu.in) containing the Business plan, Certificate of incorporation (If a company has not been registered, the promoters/ Directors must ensure that the company is registered within a period of three months from the date of approval of the application for admission in AIC) and Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association. AIC, then shall present the executive summary to an internal review committee for comments on technical and business feasibility of the idea.

The Evaluation Criteria are as follows (not limited to these):

1. Strength of the product idea in terms of its technology content, innovation, timeliness and market potential, Cost-effectiveness.
2. Profile of the core team/ promoters.
3. Intellectual Property (IP) generated and the potential of the idea for IP creation.
4. Financial/ Commercial Viability and 5 year projections of Profit & Loss statements, Balance Sheet and Cash Flows.
5. Funds requirement and viability of raising finance.
6. Time to market.
7. Break-even period.
8. Commercial potential, demand and requirement in India.
9. Scalability.

The company may also cover the basics of the business, namely, value proposition, products and services, market analysis, competition analysis, milestones and timelines, development and marketing plan, and, risk analysis.

Stage 2.

Presentation to Evaluation Committee of AIC

If the initial evaluation of the business plan / executive summary is positive, AIC will arrange a meeting with the company Directors, during which the company will be expected to present using power-point slides describing critical aspects of the business plan to the evaluation committee. The presentation will be followed by discussions. A final decision will be conveyed to the applicants regarding the company's entry into the incubator after the monthly AIC meeting.

AIC will rank the proposals if it is viable and space will be allocated to those ranked applicants as per the availability of space.

3. Intellectual Property

Intellectual Property (IP) can be a patent, software code, copyright, design registration, developed product, or alike. All the IP generated by an incubating company at AIC or IP generated by a graduated company from AIC within a period of 2 years from the date of exit from AIC will be with the St. Albert's College (Autonomous). The incubating companies at AIC have to follow the IPR policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous).

IP for incubation purpose will be assessed based on the following details:

1. Whether any seed grant (from public or private sources) has been used in developing the technology which will go into the product(s) of the proposed company. If yes, details of the understanding with the funding agency in terms of sharing of the IP.
2. Whether any person other than the applicants has worked on the technology and if their work will be incorporated in the product(s). If yes, whether such other person has a right in IP ownership.

3. The company shall inform if any student of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has worked on the technology and if their work will be incorporated in the product(s). If yes, whether such student has a right in IP ownership.
4. The company shall inform if any IP has been generated as a result of the collaborative work with faculty members (who are not promoters) and is being incorporated into the product(s). If yes, whether such faculty has a right in IP ownership.
5. If the IP is developed at St. Albert's College (Autonomous), whether any infrastructure of the College (hardware, testing setup, instrumentation, computing resources, processes) has been used in developing the technology that will go into the product(s).
6. If the IP is developed at St. Albert's College (Autonomous), whether any consultancy project was executed in the proposed area.
7. A statement from the "owners/ innovators/ creators" of IP to the effect that they are the "owners/ innovators/ creators" of IP as the case may be.

The Promoters should fill an IP declaration worksheet at the time of admission and declare the Intellectual Property developed and owned by the incubated company.

Applicants, who are current faculty or students of St. Albert's College (Autonomous), aspiring for incubation with the IP of the College, shall first approach St. Albert's College (Autonomous) for transfer of / licensing of/ permission to use IP in favour of prospective incubate companies. They will initiate a letter to Dean -R&D, St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and AIC requesting the transfer of St. Albert's College's (Autonomous) IP in favour of a start-up company in the Business Incubator intended to be promoted/ supported by the inventor.

IP transfer/ IP licensing/ permission to use IP will be in favour of only the registered companies.

4. Seed Loan

AIC may provide/support-for seed loan subject to the availability of funds/ grants/ schemes meant for this purpose. Seed loan will be sanctioned only to the registered companies and shall be based on merits of each company. Promoters/ Directors whose companies are not registered at the time of application shall not be eligible to receive seed loan until their companies are incorporated. Further, admission to AIC shall not automatically entitle the companies to seed loan.

A company desirous of getting seed loan may submit an application for seed fund on admission with AIC. Sanction of seed loan will be decided based on the eligibility criteria as decided by AIC. It would also be subject to the terms stipulated under specific grant or scheme as the case may be. Though seed loan may be sanctioned, disbursement shall be linked to the milestones. One of the criteria for approval of the seed loan will be to help the company reach the next stage in terms of product development or go-to-market stage. Preference will be given to companies with strong commitment and contribution from their promoters. AIC will have sole discretion to sanction or reject an application for seed loan and the decision of AIC in this regard shall be final. Seed loan will be disbursed to the selected incubating companies on the specified terms and conditions of Seed-Loan. AIC is not bound to give any reason in case an application for seed loan is rejected.

5. Infrastructure

Upon admission to AIC, the following facilities will be offered to the incubated companies on an individual basis:

1. Co-working space and facilities for operations.
2. Internet connection (on actual cost basis)
3. Phone connection (on actual cost basis)
4. Standard Furniture as decided by AIC.

Common Infrastructure: AIC provides a common pool of hard and soft infrastructure to be shared by all incubated companies (on actual cost basis). The following resources are provided:

1. A common Printer
2. Fax machine.
3. Photocopying machine.
4. Document Scanner.

5. Library Access (both physical and digital)
6. Meeting/Conference room with projection equipment.
7. Training Room
8. Tele or Video conferencing facilities.
9. Common Amenities like washrooms, canteen, recreation facilities etc.

Institute infrastructure: AIC may facilitate access to the Institute infrastructure or laboratories as per the norms of St. Albert's College (Autonomous).

Services: AIC may associate with professionals for accounting, IP, legal and management expertise on a part-time basis. The incubated companies can avail their services with or without consideration (the details can be availed from the office of AIC). The possible services and support items are listed as follows:

1. Business Mentoring
2. Legal Support
3. Accounting Support
4. Secretarial Support
5. IP protection Support
6. Invention Studio/Makers Lab
7. Market Survey Support
8. Technology Support
9. Industry Connect
10. Investors Connect
11. Intern Support: To provide support, incubatees will be assigned an intern, if desired.

Mentoring and Advisory Services:

1. Strategic Check-ups: The AIC Coordinator will meet the company CEOs at least once a month for strategy reviews and discussion of operational issues.
2. An incubated company will have to take a faculty advisor as a mentor on technology issues.
3. Specialized mentors will also be made available to the companies to assist with particular strategic areas or to provide project-oriented consultation.

If a company is provided with specialised capital equipment, rent on the same will be decided on a case-by-case basis. This would, however be finalised prior to approval of a proposal for admission to AIC or at the time of procurement of the equipment as the case may be.

6. Other Services

Apart from physical infrastructure as stated above, AIC intends to create certain other supports and services which would include:

1. Organising events to help companies in networking and showcasing their technologies,
2. Meetings with visitors of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) (such as alumni, Venture Capitalists, industry professionals).

Incubatee companies can avail of the above support and services when offered by AIC. In addition, AIC will also build up information and knowledge pool to be useful generically for start-up companies. AIC will coordinate with Albertian Institute of Management/other departments of the College, on management education, technology appraisal and other training programmes designed for start-up companies.

7. Periodic assessment

AIC will evaluate the performance of incubatee companies periodically. Incubatee companies will submit report to AIC on quarterly basis in a prescribed format. The companies may also be subject to an annual assessment by a committee comprising of experts. A company which has taken seed loan will have to submit additional information as may be asked by AIC. The un-disbursed portion of the seed loan will be adjusted subject to the performance of the company. Incubatee companies will have to submit their annual reports along with financial statements of the previous financial year (also need to submit the financial projections forthcoming financial year) on or before 30th April.

8. Information Submission

Incubatee companies have to submit information to AIC about all material changes or developments taking place in their companies from time to time. Such information could be (but not limited to) change in name of the company, change in business or product profile, change in directors, promoters or shareholders, acquisition of a new office, additional equity or debt investments. AIC may require incubatee companies to submit other information as it deems fit. Prior concurrence of AIC should be obtained for effecting such changes.

9. Consideration:

In lieu of support and services to be provided by AIC , the incubatee companies will be subject to consideration on following accounts to the extent applicable:

1. Monthly rent/ facilities charge at discounted rate for physical and soft infrastructure to be paid to AIC.
2. Consideration in the form of equity and/or revenue sharing of the respective companies for transfer/ licensing of / permission to use IP in favour of the incubatee companies and the facilities provided by AIC. The percentage of Equity and revenue sharing will be decided by AIC and the incubating company at the time of admission and is to be given in favour of AIC.
3. Consideration for usage of departmental laboratory facilities to be given to St. Albert's College (Autonomous).

The indicative range of the equity holding by AIC for infrastructure and IP will be 15%. The percentage of the equity holding of AIC shall be maintained at 15% irrespective of whether additional shares are issued or the shares of the Promoters are diluted (or in any other manner). If the company fails to raise investment from an Angel Investor, Venture Capital Fund or any other source for a period of five years from the date of the last issuance of shares in favour of AIC, AIC will have a right to sell its holding to the promoters of the Company or to any other individual/entity at a value which will be higher of book value and fair value or at any rate deemed by the AIC. Investment for the purpose of this section means an investment received in form of equity by the Company from any sources.

10. Tenure in AIC

Companies will be permitted to stay in AIC, to begin with, for a period of 24 months. A nominal monthly charge will be levied to a company for the period of first 24 months which can be extended for another 24 months. Companies will have to pay the charge at the prevailing market rate if the company uses the facilities of AIC for more than 12 months of the extended period.

11. Exit (Graduation)

Incubatee companies will leave the incubator under the following circumstances:

1. Raising substantial investment from angel investor / Venture Capital Fund / any other investor– Rs. 1 crore (INR Ten Million) or more.
2. When the annual revenues of the company exceeds Rs. 1 crore (INR Ten Million) or when a company achieves a Profit before Tax of Rs. 50 Lakhs (INR Five Million).
3. Completion of stay for twenty four months, unless the stay is extended by AIC.
4. Underperformance or unviability of the business proposition: criteria for the same will be decided and applied by AIC on the case to case basis.
5. Irresolvable disputes between promoters/ Directors. AIC will decide the position or point when disputes are deemed to be irresolvable.
6. When the number of employees of the company exceeds seven.
7. When the company enters in an acquisition, merger or amalgamation deal or reorganisation deal resulting substantially a change in the profile of the company, its promoters, directors, shareholders, products or business plans, or when a company plans for a public issue.
8. Change in promoters'/ Directors team without concurrence of AIC.
9. Any other reasons which AIC may find it necessary for an incubatee company to leave Incubation Centre.
10. Exit by a company in writing to AIC for other reasons

Notwithstanding anything written elsewhere, AIC decision in connection with the exit of an incubatee company shall be final and shall not be disputed by any incubatee company.

12. Conflicts of interest and confidentiality of information

When a person plays two separate roles in two different positions and he/ she uses one position for his/ her personal benefit in the other role, a situation leading to conflict of interest arises. AIC endeavours to draw a line between appropriate and inappropriate interactions among its board members, employees, mentors, consultants, affiliates, incubatee companies, their employees, persons connected to them or their promoters, employees and staff, various service providers and suppliers.

Since situations leading to conflicts of interests are inevitable, a transparent policy, based on full disclosure of relevant information by the concerned parties, and discouraging their influence on decisions and activities to avoid personal benefit to them has to be signed by all the concerned parties. The policy makes all stakeholders related to AIC and incubatee companies aware that no one should use his/ her position in one role for the personal gains in the other role, and when necessary, explicit permission of relevant stakeholder may be obtained. Appropriate judgement should be applied by all concerned parties while assessing the genuineness of conflicting interests.

This policy also deals with maintenance of confidentiality of proprietary information. A committee may be set up by AIC to resolve any dispute over such situation causing conflicts of interests.

13. Disclaimer:

The incubatee company will understand and acknowledge that AIC intends to provide supports and services to the Company in good faith to pursue its objective to promote entrepreneurship by converting innovative technologies developed in the Institute to commercialise by incubating and supporting new enterprises. It is understood that by agreeing to provide various supports and services, AIC does not undertake responsibility for:

1. Ensuring success of an incubatee company, its products/ process/ services or marketability.
2. Ensuring quality of support and services provided by AIC to the complete satisfaction of the incubatee companies or their promoters/ Directors.

- The specifications⁴ in terms of quality, type etc., as also quantity of goods to be procured, should be clearly spelt out keeping in view the specific needs of the College.
- Where applicable, the technical specifications shall, to the extent practicable, be based on the national technical regulations or recognized national standards or building codes, wherever such standards exist, and in their absence, be based on the relevant international standards.
- Quotes should be invited following a fair, transparent and reasonable tender procedure⁵.
- The Purchase Committee should be satisfied that the selected offer adequately meets the requirement in all respects.
- The Purchase Committee should satisfy itself that the price of the selected offer is reasonable and consistent with the quality required.
- A complete schedule of the procurement cycle from the date of issuing the tender to the date of issuing the contract should be published when the tender is issued.
- All Academic as well as administrative Departments shall prepare Annual Procurement Plan before the commencement of the year and the same should be given to the Purchase Committee.
- In no case purchases should be split up so as to avoid the sanction from the management.
- Any donation/gift in the form of dead stock articles, books, equipment or any other item of capital nature shall be tagged and added to the property records as a gift and the gift is properly acknowledged and recorded.

Inventory Management

⁴ The specifications so worked out should meet the basic needs of the organisation without including superfluous and nonessential features, which may result in unwarranted expenditure.

⁵ In case of articles or services frequently required throughout the year viz. stationery, chemicals, glass wares, plastic wares, annual maintenance contract for computers/printers, photo copying machines etc, it is desirable to enter into annual rate contract for such a period as may be considered necessary to avoid calling of tenders every now and then.

Professional & Personal Development Policy

Policy Statement

St. Albert's College (Autonomous), in partnership with the employee, will maintain a professional and personal development plan for each employee. St. Albert's College's (Autonomous) role in this is as a supportive facilitator. It will be up to the employee to take a leading role in managing their own development within an approved structure.

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) may, from time to time, require employees to attend specific training or instruction delivered by internal or external facilitators. This may be on or off-site. Development may take the form of training, education, mentoring, coaching or counselling.

Objective

The objective of the professional and personal development policy is to provide a structured environment for learning and development for the staff, within the Institution or outside the Institution.

Process

During the appraisal process the Principal/Vice-Chairman/Chairman will identify and document the areas where the employee's performance may be enhanced by further training. The Principal/Vice-Chairman/Chairman will identify specific courses which the employee can attend to improve his/her calibre.

The employee and Principal/Vice-Chairman/Chairman will then work together to complete a professional development plan for the former.

In response to this, the employee can source his/her own solutions instead of, or in addition to, the Principal/Vice-Chairman/Chairman's suggestions. Requests to attend the above identified programs/events should be submitted in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor and must include:

1. Suggested dates
2. Costs
3. Anticipated outcomes

Research Policy

Introduction

The success of an educational Institution in attaining its objectives is greatly contingent upon the alignment of the faculty with all the aspects of research initiatives, being undertaken at the Institute. Therefore, the present Research Policy aims to help St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and faculty achieve excellence and contribute to society. It outlines standards of responsible and ethical conduct expected of all persons engaged in research at this Institute.

Objectives:

1. To ensure that all research activities are conducted with integrity and with due regard for the health and safety of everyone concerned.
2. To create a very good research environment in the Institution.
3. Strategic management and monitoring of research performance.
4. To ensure integrity, quality and ethics in research
5. To encourage faculty members in procuring funds from international and national funding agencies.

Promotion of Research

The College believes that researchers are free to choose the subject of their research, to seek support from any funding source for their research work, and to report their findings and conclusions. However, research shall be available for scrutiny to the Research Advisory Committee of the College and constructive criticism of peers. Research techniques used by the researchers shall not violate established professional ethics, pertaining to the health, safety, privacy, and other personal rights of human beings or to the infliction of injury or pain on animals.

The College shall create conducive environment for research. Due to limited resources, the College may not fully support all research likely to be undertaken, but it shall allocate the space, facilities, partial funding, and other resources for research programmes based on the scholarly merits of the proposed research. It shall also provide development opportunities to researchers for writing research proposals and reports, publications, patent filing, etc.

Major/Minor Research Projects

The College identifies calls for proposals for Major/Minor research by various agencies and disseminates the information through various communications channels established. Faculty can submit Major/Minor Research Project proposals to these agencies. These proposals are submitted to the Research Advisory Committee of the College for scrutiny before submitting the same to a funding agency.

The College provides all kinds of infrastructure facilities available for conducting a Major/Minor Research Project. The College plans to evolve a mechanism through which it shall monitor the progress of Research Projects funded by an external agency, maintain its accounts and submit the utilisation certificate in time to the funding agency as per the requirement of the funding agency.

Albertian Seed Fund for Research

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) wishes to encourage its Faculty members to engage in the activities of research and innovation so as to increase the IP wealth of the College. Present policy document related to release of seeds grant and financial assistance for promotion of research.

1. The "Albertian Seed Grant for Research" is executed by St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and monitored by the Office of the Dean, Research.
2. A maximum of INR Ten Lakh (Rs. 10,00,000/-) will be allotted under this scheme in a year up to a maximum of INR One Lakh (Rs. 1,00,000/-) per research project.
3. The Principal Investigator (PI) must be a faculty member of St. Albert's College (Autonomous). However, teachers or researchers from other colleges/universities/institutes/industries may be allowed as Co-Principal Investigators.

4. The duration of the project shall be for two years from the date of commencement and audited report should be submitted in each financial year as well as at the end of the project to the competing financial authority of the college.
5. Any equipment, consumables purchased under the project is the property of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) and under any circumstances, transfer or relocation of them is not allowed.
6. Half yearly report on the progress of research is to be submitted to the Office of the Dean, Research (Soft copy to research@alberts.edu.in along with two hard copies).
7. Due credit to be given to St. Albert's College (Autonomous) in any research publications arising out of the project. However, in the case of patents, the ownership will reside only upon St. Albert's College (Autonomous).
8. Applicants have to sign a declaration agreeing to continue as an employee in St. Albert's College (Autonomous) till the completion of the project, failing which the granted amount is to be refunded along with the interest as applicable.
9. Submission of research proposal does not guarantee any funding.

Collaborative Research Projects

The Academia-Industry interaction is the demand of the day. Contribution to society at large is possible if the College closely works with industries and different organisations. Industries and business organisations face different kinds of problems and many of them would like to have help from the College to find solutions to their problems. For that, the College has planned to have the following activities:

Inter-disciplinary research: Inter-disciplinary study refers to the study process cutting across various disciplines. Interdisciplinary research involves generation and integration of knowledge needed to answer complex questions, solve complex problems and gain coherent understanding of complex issues that are increasingly beyond the ability of any single discipline to address comprehensively or resolve adequately. For effective research in interdisciplinary areas, College/researchers could adopt practices mentioned in the Research Manual of the College.

Collaborative International Research: St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has MoUs with prominent Universities and Research Institutions abroad, for conducting research jointly in the areas of common interest. The Office of the Dean (Research) together with Office of International Affairs shall constantly explore the possibilities of having such collaborative or joint research in terms of thrust areas, decide the modus operandi of conducting such research and attend to other relevant aspects.

Industry Sponsored Research Project: An organisation can sponsor a project and the experts of the Institution concerned can conduct research on this project for which the financial support would be provided by the organisation. As a result, if any patent is registered, the IPR Policy College would govern the said patents and their outcomes.

Publication of Papers and Journals

Publication of papers is critical for the effectiveness of the College. Faculty must publish continuously in quality journals. Therefore, the College encourages the publication of papers by the faculty with a targeted aim. A faculty member shall be expected to publish a certain number of research papers in refereed journals at national and international levels approved by the UGC.

Research papers to be published in identified journals and to be presented at national and international conferences shall be scrutinised and guided by a committee of senior professors. Each Department of the College shall be encouraged to publish a quality journal and organise research conferences, from time to time to boost research activities in the College and to contribute to the existing body of knowledge.

Intellectual Property

Any intellectual property arising from any Research and other Consultancies will be governed by the IPR Policy of the College.

Incentives for Outstanding Research

Outstanding research contributions made by the faculty, researchers, and research scholars shall be recognised as per the Incentives Policy of the College.

Code of Ethics for Research

Researchers and professional staff must, in all aspects of their research follow the Code of Ethics Policy of the College.

Research Misconduct

The College believes that the occurrence of misconduct is a threat to the basic principles of research. The College defines research misconduct, as any fabrication, falsification or plagiarism in proposing, performing or reviewing research or in the reporting of research results. Research misconduct does not include an honest error or differences of opinion, authorship disputes that do not involve plagiarism, and violations of other College policies.

Misconduct in research damages the integrity of the profession and undermines the credibility of scholars. It is also antithetical to the values the College strives to maintain and promote. The College shall seriously take up all allegations of misconduct, and shall ensure that the procedures for the inquiry, investigation and adjudication of any misconduct are well defined and just for all parties involved and may initiate disciplinary procedure if found guilty.

Research Advisory Committee:

The Research Advisory Committee of the College shall be constituted and will function as defined in the Research Manual of the College.

Guidelines for Ph.D. Scholars and Research Centres

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) has various research centres and the College believes in transparency of functions of these research centres in an ethical manner. The Ph.D. Scholars and Research Centres shall adhere to the guidelines laid down in the Research Manual of the College.

Student Involvement and Participation Policy

Policy Statement

It is the policy of St. Albert's College (Autonomous) to involve students in the Policy making structure of the College by meaningful participation in Co/Extra-Curricular Activities of the College

Objective

To lead to effective participation in decision-making that unites stakeholders, produces an improved college environment and draws upon the strength of diversity.

Policy

Involvement of Students is not a token gesture; instead, students are expected to work diligently and constructively within the departments and the departmental committees to which they are elected and/or assigned. While the initial burden of implementation falls upon the academic Departments or Committees, the effective operationalizing of the programs and student representation will be the responsibility of the student representatives.

- Two students from each class would be selected as Student representatives of the Class (through secret balloting) during College Union Elections from which the College Union Student representatives would be elected through Presidential Election Model and as per the notification released by the Principal from time to time.
- Two students each from a class would be selected as Student representatives of the Class committee for 12 committees of the College, namely, Secretary, DQAC Coordinator, Treasurer, Arts Coordinator, Sports Coordinator, Examination Coordinator, Social Outreach Coordinator, Placement Coordinator, IEDC/IIC Coordinator, e-Governance Coordinator, Media Coordinator and Green Coordinator.
- The Number of students to be elected (or selected) is subject to revision from year to year.
- Student representatives shall participate in the same manner as faculty members in the deliberative and decision making processes as well as in the effective implementation and organizing of the events

1.1. A research proposal may be submitted only after review and approval by obtaining explicit written approval from the Institutional Research Ethics Committee. The IEC will review the need and significance of the proposed study, clarity of research objectives, validity of the methods, justification of required resources and feasibility.

1.2. The above requirement (1.1) applies to all research studies whether faculty or student research projects as well as research leading to dissertations or theses.

1.3. The procedures for the constitution of the IEC, their functioning and the requirements that Investigators have to meet will be as per the Standard Operating Procedures laid down for the purpose.

Advisory on journals for publication

2.1. Indexed journals: The College recommends publishing in journals indexed in Scopus / Web of Science / Pubmed. Publications in such journals will be eligible for consideration for career advancement, Increments and for incentives.

2.2. "Predatory journals and "Pseudo-Journals": Predatory journals and predatory publishers "prey" on academicians for financial profit by charging article processing charges for open access articles, without meeting basic scholarly publishing standards such as rigorous peer review, editorial review, archiving, transparency in fees etc. "Pseudo-Journals" include journals that may be published by "legitimate" publishers but exist primarily for marketing purposes and do not have sufficiently rigorous peer review processes to identify “fake” research reports. Predatory and pseudo journals are inimical to the very essence of science and are hence strongly condemned by the College. Faculty and Students are advised to be informed of such journals and practices and avoid publishing / supporting them in any way.

2.3 Open Access Journals: Open access journals are scholarly journals that are available online free of any direct cost to the readers. Such Journals reduce the barriers to the dissemination of scientific knowledge. However, such an online “free access” model is increasingly being adopted by unscrupulous predatory and pseudo-journal publishers. Hence faculty and students are advised to use caution while considering publishing in Open Access Journals.

Authorship

3.1. Criteria for authorship: Authorship should be limited to those who have made a significant contribution to the conception, design, execution, or interpretation of the reported study. The order of authorship should be based on the individual's contributions to the work and drafting of the manuscript. To be eligible for authorship, an individual should meet all of the following criteria:

3.1.1. Substantial contributions to study conception and design; data acquisition, analysis and interpretation of data be done

3.1.2. Drafting the manuscript and/ or revising it critically for important intellectual content.

4.2. Honorary authorship or guest authorships are not permitted. The head of department/division/laboratory does not by default become eligible for authorship if not meeting the four criteria listed in 3.1.1

3.2. Order of authorship

1. The order of the authorship is generally reflective of the quantum of contributions to the study and manuscript drafting.

2. In general, the individual who has contributed most to all aspects of the study – conception, design, data collection, analysis, interpretation, drafting and revision of the manuscript is to be designated as the First Author irrespective of their student/faculty status. It is expected that post-graduate students and PhD scholars contribute majorly to all these aspects of their dissertation projects. Therefore, in publications arising from such dissertation/thesis projects, the student/scholar would be expected to be the First Author. If there is a justifiable reason for any other individual to be designated as the First Author, this should be discussed, recorded and written approval obtained from all authors before submission of the manuscript.

3. The corresponding author takes primary responsibility for communication with the journal during the manuscript submission, peer review, and publication process. He / She is responsible for the journal's administrative requirements, such as providing details of authorship, ethics committee approval, clinical trial registration documentation, conflict of interest forms etc. The corresponding author should be available throughout the submission and peer review process to respond to editorial queries in a timely way and should be available after publication to respond to critiques of the work and cooperate with any requests from the journal for data or additional information should questions about the paper arise after publication. The corresponding author should be the faculty of the College and shall use the College credentials for communication.

4. All authors share responsibility for the scientific accuracy of an abstract for a presentation at a professional meeting or a manuscript, including supplementary material. Hence, in cases of fabrication, falsification, or plagiarism, all authors are potentially culpable.

5. The above guidelines apply to conference abstracts and presentations as well. Authorship order is determined based on the above guidelines irrespective of who is presenting the paper.

Acknowledgement of Non-author Contributions

4.1 Contributions which do not meet the above criteria should be acknowledged as non-author contributors.

4.2. Approval must be obtained from Individuals/institutions who are being acknowledged in publications.

4.3. All funding sources should be acknowledged

Affiliation and Address Conventions

5.1. It is mandatory that author affiliations to the College and department are clearly stated in all publications arising from work conducted by the staff and students of the College. The College name should reflect "St. Albert's College"

Scientific / Research Misconduct

6.1. Data fabrication and falsification

1. Researchers are expected to maintain all original records and data for at least 5 years after publication
2. Data generated from student research projects is to be retained by their faculty supervisors even after completion of the student project and the exit of the student from the Institution for at least 5 years
3. Original data should be made available for verification as and when required by the Institution Ethics Committee or other designated authority
4. Any error that is discovered in reported results in publications should be brought to the notice of the Principal and Institutional Research Ethics Committee and corrections/retractions should be reported to the Editor of the publication
5. Any accusation of data fabrication/falsification from any source should be brought to the notice of the Principal of the College

6.2. Plagiarism

1. Plagiarism is an attempt to pass off someone else's work as his or her own. Self-plagiarism (duplicate publication), refers to an author's attempt to reuse substantial parts of his or her own published work without providing the appropriate references
2. It is every researcher's responsibility to ensure that manuscripts submitted for publication are free of plagiarism
3. The College recommends using a Plagiarism detection tool to screen manuscripts before submission and retain a copy of the report for their defence against possible accusations.

6.3. Procedure for handling allegations of scientific / research misconduct

1. Any allegations of scientific / research misconduct is to be reported by the recipient of such communication to the Principal through Dean (Research).
2. The Principal will refer the matter to the College Institutional Research Ethics Committee who in turn will constitute an Enquiry Committee and the respondent will be given an opportunity to submit in person and in writing clarifications and comments on the allegation.
3. The Enquiry Committee will submit a report on the findings of the inquiry to the Principal. The report will include the judgment by the Committee on whether

Gender Equity Policy

Policy Statement

St. Albert's College (Autonomous) is committed to creating a community where all staff and students are equally respected and valued and enjoy equity of both opportunity and outcomes.

Process

St. Albert's College as an educational institution and an employer is committed to promoting gender equality and to ensuring equality of opportunity and outcomes for all staff and students.

Gender equality involves equality of opportunities and equality of results; it includes the redistribution of resources and responsibilities between women and men and the transformation of the underlying causes and structures of gender inequality to achieve substantive equality.

St. Albert's College will ensure that all staff, students and college policies, procedures, systems and structures actively promote gender equality and seek to expose and redress gender inequities.

The Equal Opportunity Employment process is reflected throughout St. Albert's College's staff recruitment and retention processes (the College will provide equal employment opportunities to all qualified persons without discrimination on the basis of age and sex).
