From its very inception this had been a premier centre of learning for all the categories of students, especially from the minority communities. The College owes its origin to the foresight and sagacity of its Founder Patron, The Most Rev. Dr. Joseph Attipetty, and the first indigenous Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Verapoly. In 1946, St. Albert's High School, Ernakulam was upgraded to a second grade College affiliated to the Madras University. The building just opposite to the old school building in 1951.
